Success?

Conjoined crocodiles.

A symbol of unity in diversity giving a common destiny; sharing; from the proverb,

"Funtumfrafu denkyemfrafu, wowo yafunu koro nanso wonya biribi a wofom efiri se aduane no de no yete no wo menetwitwie mu," to wit, Funtumfrafu and Denkyemfrafu share a stomach, but when they get something (food) they strive over it because the sweetness of the food is felt as it passes through the throat.
